

ELLIS STUDY DAY

MONITORING AND MITIGATING ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH INEQUALITIES

BRAIN-be 2.0

[2018 - 2023]

Monitoring and Mitigating Environmental Health Inequalities

ELLIS is a BELSPO BRAIN-be 2.0 project that aims to develop policy-relevant tools to monitor and mitigate environmental health inequalities in Belgium.

The ELLIS team

Epidemiology and public health

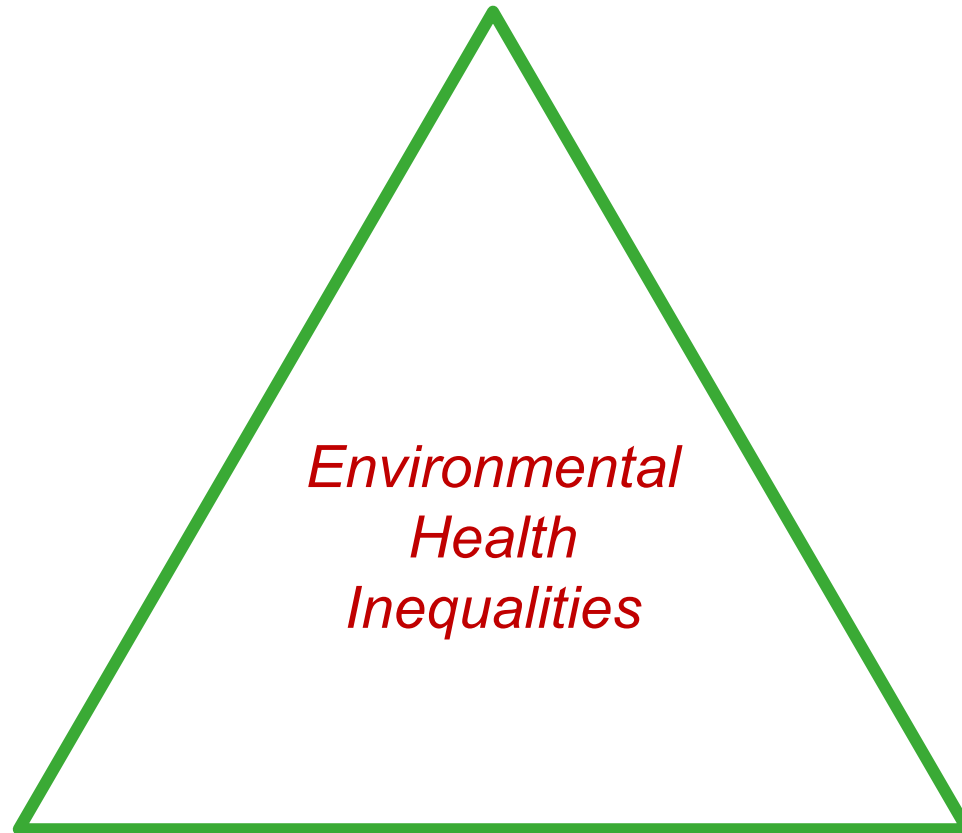

Health information

Chemical and physical health risks

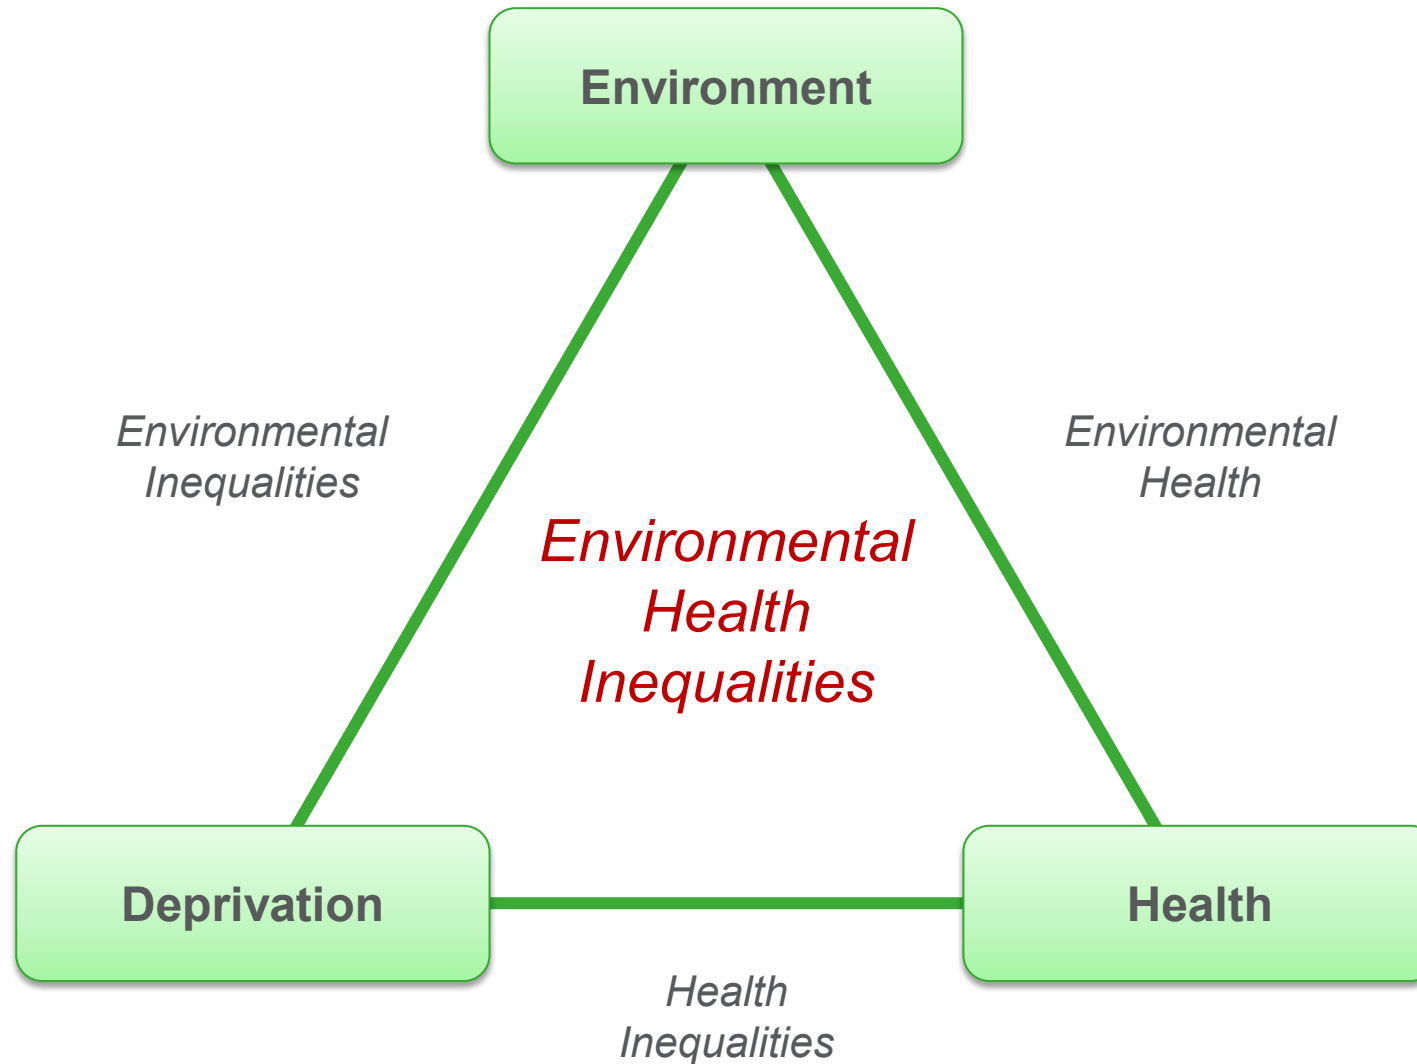

Risk and health impact assessment

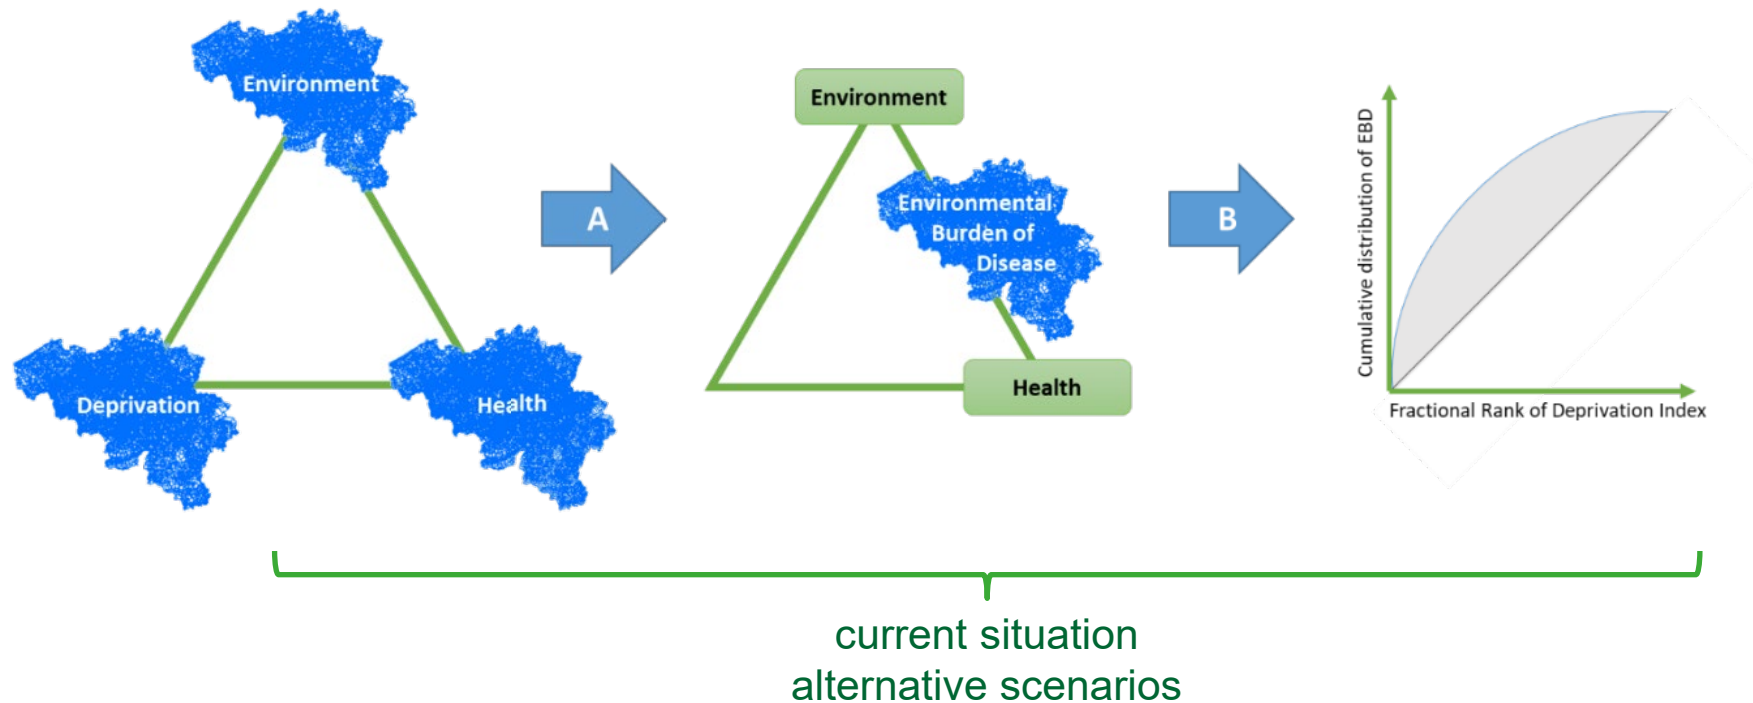

Environmental health inequalities

Environmental health inequalities

Environmental health inequalities

Follow-up committee

Program

9h30	Welcome — Brecht Devleesschauwer, Sciensano & Aziz Naji, Belspo
9h40	Context setting — Matthias Braubach, WHO
10h10	Belgian Indices of Multiple Deprivation (BIMD) — Laura Van den Borre, Sciensano
10h30	BIMD & health impact — Martina Otavova, UCLouvain
10h50	Coffee break
11h20	Air pollution & its health impact — Ingrid Pelgrims, Sciensano
11h40	Health Impact of transport & urban planning — Bram Vandeninden, ULB & U Hasselt
12h00	Impact of ELLIS for policy making — Samuel Lietaer, FPS Health
12h20	The post-ELLIS era: the way forward — Eva De Clercq, Sciensano
12h30	Lunch