

Question 1: Are you convinced that pathogen genomics has an added value for public health surveillance? (question at the start)

Question 2: What is needed to implement pathogen genomics for public health surveillance? (question at the start)

Question 3: Are you convinced that pathogen genomics has an added value for public health surveillance? (question at the end)

Question 4: What is needed to implement pathogen genomics for public health surveillance? (question at the end)

Question 5: What is the main added value from the .BE READY project regarding pathogen genomic surveillance to support public health? (question at the end)

